

No. 2.

WEHMAN BROS.

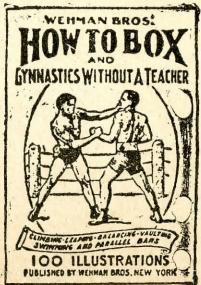

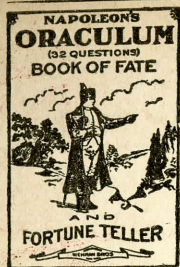

PRICE 10¢

HEBREW JOKES

NGL

PUBLISHED BY WEHMAN BROS. NEW YORK.

WEHMAN BROS.'

HEBREW JOKES

№ No. 2.

CONTAINING

Side-Splitting Jokes, Stories and Dialectic Humor, as Delivered by the Celebrated Humorists of the Day.

PUBLISHED BY
WEHMAN BROS., 126 PARK ROW,
NEW YORK.

COPYRIGHT, MCMXX, BY WEHMAN BROS.

WEHMAN'S AMERICAN NATIONAL SONGS

PRICE 15 CENTS.

This book contains a choice collection of nearly 100 of the most popular American patriotic and national songs extant. The following are a few of the titles of songs contained in this book, viz.: A call to arms. After the war. A knot of blue and gray. The American boy. America, or, my country, 'tis of thee. An American toast. And so will the boys in blue. A thousand years. My own Columbia. A Yankee man o' war. A Yankee ship and a Yankee crew. Battle cry of freedom. Battle hymn of the republic. Battle of Bull Run. Brave boys are they. Brother's fainting at the door. The charge at Roanoke. Cheer, boys, cheer. Columbia rules the sea. Flag of liberty. Flag of our union. Flag of the free. The flags of all nations. Hail Columbia. Just after the battle. Just before the battle, mother, Mother is the battle over? My country's flag of stars. Old Glory waves on high. The red, white and blue. The soldier's farewell. The soldier's funeral. Stand by the flag. The star-spangled banner. Tramp, tramp, tramp, the boys are marching. Unfurl the glorious banner. We are coming, Father Abraham. When this cruel war is over. Willie has gone to the war. Yankee Doodle, and a lot of other equally popular national songs. A good book to place in the hands of America's youth, for its contents will imbue them with the true spirit of American independence and patriotism; in fact, every American ought to secure a copy of this book, as its contents is full of strength, fire and patriotism. Bound in handsome colored cover. Price 15 Cents per copy, by mail, postpaid.

Address all orders to

WEHMAN BROS.,

358 PARK ROW,

NEW YORK CITY.

WEHMAN BROS.'

HEBREW JOKES, No. 2.

Levy—"My wife married me vor mein moneysh."
Rosenstein—"Vell, she earned it."

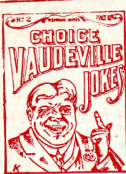

Mr. Isaacs—"Wh—What a smell of gas."
His Son—"Yes, father, the pipe is leaking."
Mr. Isaacs—"Why don't you strike a match?"

Book agent (to Mr. Levisky)—"Sir, can I sell you an Encyclopædia?"
Mr. Levisky—"No, I couldn't ride one if I had it."

Rubenstein—"Vot you gif der baby dis year?"
Feldkahn—"Ach, ve vos shly like foxes. Ve vait till Gris'mas unt gif him his name."

Highwayman (to Hebrew pawnbroker)—"Put up your hands!"
Pawnbroker—"How much vill I git on 'em?"

Handy Pocket-Size Books for the Millions. 10c. Each, or 6 Copies for 50c.

Address all orders direct to WEHMAN BROS., Publishers, 158 Park Row, NEW YORK CITY.